

Heffernan of the Shamrock

The story of Sandhurst's Famed Hotelier

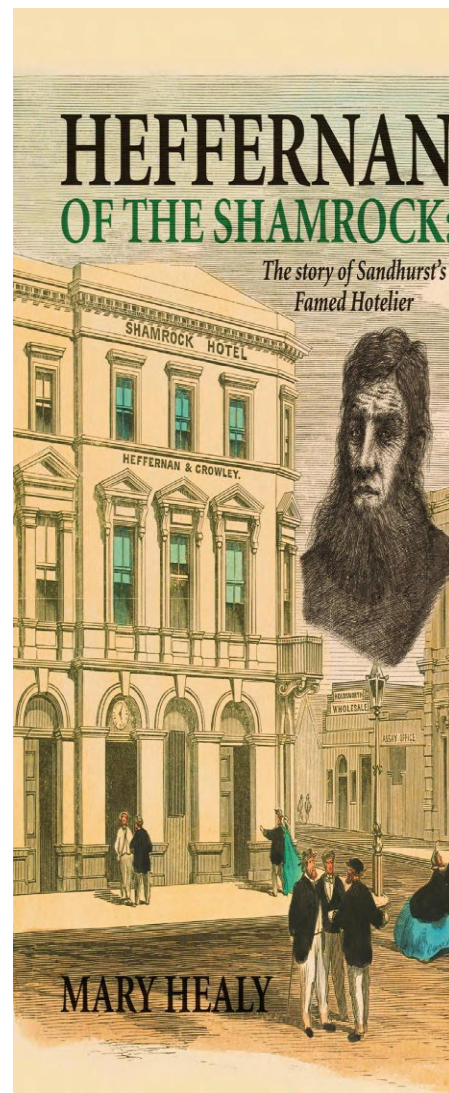

Author: Mary Healy

In Heffernan of the Shamrock, Mary Healy provides a fascinating insight into this remarkable man. From impoverished conditions in Ireland he travelled the world seeking a better life for himself and his family.

He found gold in California and then sailed to Victoria seeking his fortune. He established The Shamrock Hotel and his 30 year tenure of the hotel mirrored the rise of Sandhurst as the world's richest goldfield.

This new book is a worthwhile addition to the library of those who are fascinated with early Australian history and its Irish influences.
